

“Faith is permitting ourselves to be seized by the things we do not see.” – Martin Luther

Innovators take risks. They are not afraid to experiment and learn from “failure” (which often is a necessary step toward success).

Congregations innovate, too, through theology pubs, addiction ministries, food pantries -- even building a medical clinic for Africa.

The church needs innovators today to put God’s dreams into action – even if that means doing what we haven’t done before.

“One of the great things about SEPA Synod is that we look to serve those who are marginalized and living in poverty. (We ask) where can we show up and be who God is calling us to be.”

- Pastor Pat Davenport

Our Synod has planted innovative faith communities: Welcome Church serves people experiencing homelessness. Living Gospel offers hope to people as they return from incarceration. Rhawnhurst Turning Point provides youth a Christian environment for homework help and arts programs.

Funds raised by Forward Together in Faith will allow us to fund more new innovative faith communities and provide grants and expertise to help congregations launch their own new ministries.
